

OUR TEAM

Timothy B. McCormack

Mr. McCormack is an intellectual property attorney with a substantial litigation and technology law practice. Mr. McCormack's practice, however, includes all areas of intellectual property including intellectual property and patent litigation, trademark registration and counseling, technology licensing, trade secret law, copyright law, entertainment law and emerging and growth business issues. He is a published author, including work appearing in the Washington State Bar Association Journal and the Puget Sound Business Journal (intellectual property and business topics). Mr. McCormack is a regularly invited speaker on intellectual property matters at the University of Washington Jackson School of Business, the Small Business Administration and approved Continuing Legal Education seminars.

Mr. McCormack received his B.A. in Speech Communication (cum laude) from the University of Washington (1994) and his Doctorate of Jurisprudence from the University of Oregon School of Law (1997) with a special certificate of study in the area of intellectual property, which was the focus of his legal studies. He is a Seattle native with noteworthy international experience, having formally studied in Japan and the United Kingdom and having traveled to over 23 countries around the world. Mr. McCormack is admitted to the Bar of the States of Washington, Oregon, and Idaho, and is registered to practice before the United States Supreme Court, Federal Circuit Court of Appeals, Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals, and Federal Court for Western District of Washington.